

Grange Initiates Meal Delivery Program in March

Perry Valley started a meal delivery program this spring to provide a free hot meal on the second Saturday of each month to those facing food insecurity and/or social isolation during the COVID pandemic. Local church volunteers deliver the meals and are taking turns preparing the meals with funding provided by the Grange.

Meals will be prepared by Central Baptist Church in May and Reward United Methodist Church in June.