

Daffodil Sales for American Cancer Society

For almost more years than anyone can remember, our Grange has taken an active role to support the American Cancer Society by selling daffodils – the flower of hope – each March in Millerstown and Liverpool. An advance mailing is sent to all local church congregations, most of which have named “Daffodil Chairpersons” to promote the benefit. Large orders are sold to local churches to adorn their altars in memory of loved ones and smaller orders are sold to individuals who stop by the sales locations in two local towns.

In 2012 Perry Valley Grange raised $1,852 during the sale and forwarded these funds to the local Cancer Society office. This is an increase of $306 over the previous year. A summary of this year’s sales: 96 bunches of flowers, 56 potted mini-daffodils, 3 “Vases & a Bunch” and 6 “Bears & a Bunch”. The project was coordinated Grange Treasurer Barbara McMillen. Proceeds of the sale are used to fund cancer research, public education and patient services.
