

Fall Family Fun Night

On a cool, crisp October evening, Perry Valley Grange held its annual Fall Family Fun Night. The last fellowship dinner of the season in the outdoor pavilion began the evening, followed by games and an inter-generational hayride.

The tractor and wagon await us for the family hayride

After enjoying good food and a game of bingo, everyone bundles up for the hayride

Food and fellowship was enjoyed in the outdoor pavilion by all at the Fun Night

Young and old alike anticipate the sights and sounds of the fall evening